

HUD's Office of Native American Programs Training Announcement

Non-Discrimination Laws in Housing

April 12, 2018

Registration and sign-in begins at: 8:30 AM

Instruction begins at 9:00 AM – 4:30 PM

*Please note: Cancellation can take place due to low enrollment or unforeseen circumstances (i.e. government shut down). AAHA will alert participants as soon possible should this occur. Enrollment numbers will be assessed a week prior to the training dates.

Overview

The Association of Alaska Housing Authorities is hosting a ONE day training workshop offering a comprehensive overview of non-discrimination laws in housing. Participants will gain knowledge regarding the applicability of non-discrimination laws to tribal housing programs, best practices and common errors related to non-discrimination laws, and the skills necessary to identify and address housing discrimination issues in accordance with applicable laws.

Trainer

AAHA has contracted with Alaska Legal Services to provide this training. AK Legal Services is Alaska's only statewide full service fair housing organization. They provide services to all Alaskans with special emphasis on Alaska Natives, rural residents, elders and veterans. Their mission is to eliminate housing discrimination and to ensure equal housing opportunities for all Alaskans.

Who should attend?

Employees of Regional Housing Authorities (RHA)/Tribally Designated Housing Entities (TDHE); Board of Directors, Housing Directors, Occupancy Specialists, Contract Administrators, Finance Directors, Project Managers, Inspectors, and Maintenance Directors.
